

Figure 4: Cumulative explained variance of each component, computation performed with all the different sensor types. The filled area represents the area between the minimum and the maximum for each component, among different combination of subject and run.